EDUCATION ABOUT ASIA

TEACHING RESOURCE JOURNAL

Education About Asia (EAA), published by the Association for Asian Studies, is a unique and fascinating resource for teachers, students, and all those with an interest in Asia. Articles and reviews in EAA cover a wide range of topics and time periods—from ancient to modern history, language, geography, religion, youth culture, and much more.

EAA was first published in 1996 and appears three times a year. It will greatly enhance your understanding and knowledge of this important region of the world.

With each issue, you will enjoy:

- Stimulating articles on all areas of Asia, with subjects ranging from ancient cultures and literatures to current events.
- Educational teaching resources for classroom use.
- A comprehensive guide to Asia-related print and digital resources—movies and documentaries, books, curriculum guides, and a wide variety of web resources.
- Each issue includes a special section on a topic of particular interest to secondary school, undergraduate, and middle school instructors, as well as essays and teaching resource-related articles that focus upon other important Asia-related subjects.

Subscriber Testimonials

More than ever, we need reliable and accurate sources such as Education About Asia (EAA) to inform teachers and students of the latest trends and themes covering Asian culture, politics, and society—EAA is the go-to anchor publication for all teacher workshops and outreach engagements that I organize...

CAROL STEPANCHUK, Lieberthal-Rogel Center for Chinese Studies, University of Michigan

EAA offers cultural and historical insights, interviews and a wide range of suggested resources through which you can inspire your students to learn about the world.

IAN TIEDEMANN, Social Studies Teacher
Greenwich High School, Connecticut

For educators at any level, Education About Asia is the journal of choice to keep up with the latest developments in effective classroom strategies and teaching resources for the region.

MICHAEL N. SOLEM, Senior Advisor for Geography Education,
American Association of Geographers

Education About Asia is the most important single resource for teachers in the entire field of Asian Studies. Its articles and reviews, written by specialists but easily accessible to non-specialists, cover broad, significant and often timely topics. They not only stand alone as state-of-the-field interpretive essays, but they also encourage further investigation and contemplation by teachers at every educational level.

RICHARD J. SMITH, George and Nancy Rupp
Professor Emeritus of Humanities, Rice University
